

The Message is suspending Bulletin Board listings

By Tim Lilley

The Message editor

On March 13, the Diocese of Evansville announced additional steps it is taking to prevent the spread of the Coronavirus.

As a result of the many parish, school and ministry cancellations – and cancellation notices The Message has received from other entities across the diocese and region – we are suspending publication of Bulletin Board listings through at least our April 10 issue.

Thanks your patience and understanding.